Brand Milisary Parade and Naval Demonstration.

New York, April 27.-The demonstration in honor of Grant's memory today was the most noteworthy affair of the kind ever witnessed in this country. When the nation's hero was laid to rest 12 years ago the procession that tomb the naval fleet saluted formed to do him honor was the most impressive seen up to that time. From almost every state came civil and military delegations to pay their tribute to "FELLOW CITIZENS-A great life dedcated to the welfare of the nation, here finds its earthly coronation. Even if this day lacked the impressiveness of ceremony and was devoid of pageantry, it would still be memorable, because it is the anniversary of the birth of one of the most famous and best beloved American soldiers.

"Architecture has paid high tribute to the leaders of mankind, but never was a memorial more worthily be-stowed or more gratefully accepted by a free people than the beautiful structare before which we are gathered. This is an unfair critcism, because the Repjablicans have never shown any dispesition to abandon extreme protection. Mr. McKinley won political fame as the apostle of a high tariff, and, during the late campaign reiterated his devotion to this policy. Those Democrats who voted for McKialey voted with their eyes open to tariff possibilities. Neither have these Democrats reason to complain of Mr. McKinley's attitude of the money question. To be sure, the president has sent an argosy abroad in search, not of a golden floece, but of an object equally delusive, namely, an international agreement for the restoration of bimetallism, but in so doing he is only carrying out a pledge contained in his platform.
